Executive Summary

We would like to take this opportunity to introduce our services to your esteemed organization. Over the past years, we have invested building capacity for our staff including training and thus having a team we are proud of. More to this, we have invested in the very latest advertising solutions you may need and strategies to reach the different audiences.

AK Machinery and Innovations, unlike a typical branding Company will provide a unique combination of excellent products at value pricing with conducive services.

AK Machinery and Innovations will be the answer to an increasing demand. The public :

- (1) wants value for everything that it purchases,
- (2) is not willing to accept anything that does not meet its expectations, and
- (3) wants quality and unique products.

In today's highly competitive environment, it is becoming increasingly more difficult to differentiate one branding concept from another. AK Machinery and Innovations will do this by being the only branding company that has unique products for one low price. We will be providing top quality products to our clients' request; we believe that this feature will ensure our success.

Vision

To be a leader in the corporate branding, supply and print industry, ensuring value for money to our clients.

Mission

AK Machinery and Innovations will strive to be the premier in the local marketplace. We have experts that offer advice to our customers on how best to approach the market for the products they are offering, how to maintain a good corporate image for your company and to create awareness for their services.

Our main focus is to exceed the expectations of every client by offering outstanding advertising material in form of corporate T-shirts, Branded uniforms, printing on overalls, calendars, wall clocks, caps, posters of different categories, business cards, Banners, Stickers, flyers, tear drops, Magazines and Vehicle Branding.

Customer satisfaction is paramount. When approached by a customer with a request, our motto will be, "Yes; and listen to what the question is" We will strive for a broad appeal.

Employee welfare will be equally important to our success. All will be treated fairly with the utmost respect. We want our employees to feel a part of AK Machinery and Innovations Happy employees make happy clients.

What makes us unique?

The keys that have made our services successful and unique in a way are:

1. The creation of a unique, innovative, mid-scale atmosphere that will differentiate us from the other providers in the same industry.
2. Execution of our primary goal to serve nothing but the highest quality products at unbelievably low prices. We must deliver on this pledge 99.9% of the time, without exception.
3. Hiring the best people available, training, motivating and encouraging them.
4. Being creative at the highest and integrity than our competition.
